

Pathways from policy to practice: internationalization of learning & teaching in Finnish universities.

Anna Grönlund is Head of Internationalization and Higher Education Policy at University of Jyväskylä, Finland.

She is also Chair of Universities Finland UNIFI strategic internationalization working group, member of several national level and ministerial working groups as well as a member of the European Association for International Education EAIE joint leadership and the Conference Programme Committee.